"Bridge Over Troubled Waters", added to our repertoire late last season, will probably be the central theme of one set this season. We were busy last June, preparing many new numbers to be programmed this season. One has a title indicating a liberal application of SPICE. We will give you one more clue; it was written by the same talented duo responsible for the number noted above.

Each "NOTE" is a member of the Kodak family. Individually, he or she may work in an office, a laboratory, or a shop; some are married, some are single, together they form a handsome and talented group. As the year goes by, we plan to use some of this space to introduce these people to you.

It is a challenge to maintain the strength and balance necessary for a good choral sound. To this end we are always looking for new voices to audition. Maybe you have just the one we need!

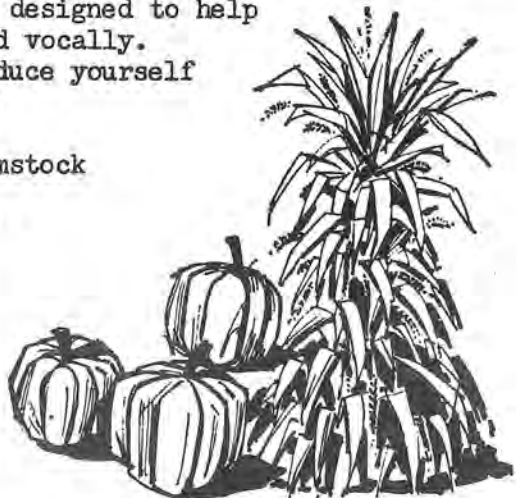

Our audition procedure is designed to help us know you personally and vocally. Why not drop in and introduce yourself Monday nites at 6:15 P.M.

KODACTORS

It's that time of the year again - pumpkins, football, the Kodactors' opening show of the season. That's right, our first show is just around the corner. We will be producing three segments from Robert Anderson's comedy, "You Know I Can't Hear You When The Water's Running." We are trying something new with this show by scheduling it for two consecutive weekends, in the Kodak Camera Club Theater. It will be presented on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 15 and 16 and again on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 22 and 23. Tickets are only 75¢ and are now on sale at the KPAA Office in B-28. Even though we've scheduled an extra night, Friday and Saturday tickets always sell quickly. Get your tickets now, before we're sold out; don't be disappointed.

Sharing the directing chores for this production will be Jack Finear and Julie Royter. The topic is sex, in all its mysterious and fascinating guises. The first segment, "The Shock of Recognition" breaks in on an argument between a playwright and his producer as to whether a nude scene should be included in his new play. John Lakotas and Clarence Duell handle the parts well, while the argument gradually involves a very proper secretary, Eileen Keegan, and finally Jim Saturno as an overeager actor who is ready to bare his soul (at least) to get a part.

In the next segment, "The Footsteps of Doves", a showroom in a bedding store becomes the scene of a little disagreement between a husband and wife about their new bedroom set. He wants a double bed, she votes for twin beds. The hilarious arguments on both sides will sound familiar to all married couples. Arline Miller and Buryle Marvin portray the more-or-less happily married couple. John Secora appears as the bedding salesman who has seen it all before and Carol Durgin adds a little spice as a young divorcee also shopping for a new bed.

To top off the evening we'll present "I'm Herbert", a zany sketch about an old, old couple portrayed by Larry Bauer and Eileen Keegan (yes, she's in two sketches). They just sit on a porch and talk, never realizing how funny they are. They've each had a few previous marriages and maybe a fling or two and such details as names and places are lost in the hazy past. Taken together, the plays provide an evening of delightful, explosively funny adult entertainment.

One or more of these segments will probably be chosen for production in the annual New York State Theatre Festival Association drama festivals. This year, the regional festival for our part of the state will be held Oct. 29-31, with the statewide competition scheduled for November.

We have also begun our plans for our Christmas show scheduled for December 10-11 in the B-28 auditorium. Returning as our director will be "Bud" Wegman. By the time you read this, we will have made a final choice from among the two or three being considered. It will definitely be a family show, with parts for several men and women, as well as a few children's parts and possibly even some singing parts. Tryouts are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 25 and 26 in B-28. In addition to the cast, we will also need a large backstage crew to help with the many, many jobs which must be done well behind the scenes. If you're interested in helping in any capacity, either onstage or backstage, our tryouts and membership are always open to any KPAA member and family.

Finally, there are some other dates to keep in mind, such as business meetings and the like. Here is an up-to-date calendar:

Oct. 11	Kodactor business meeting, rehearsal
Oct. 15-16	"Water in KCC Theater
Oct. 22-23	"Water in KCC Theater

Oct. 25-26	Tryouts for Christmas show
Oct. 29-31	Regional festival at Xerox Tower
Nov. 19-21	State Theatre festival in Corning
Nov. 22	Kodactor business meeting
Dec. 10-11	Christmas show

Additional details on any Kodactor activities are available from Tom Davies at Ext. 72193 or John Fabrinkis at Ext. 77580.

JUNIOR-MISS CHARM CLASS

A charm school for the Junior-Miss is being sponsored by the KPAA beginning Wednesday evening, October 6 from 6:30 to 8:00, in room 50-D, sub-basement of the E. K. Recreation Center.

A fee of $12.00 will be charged for the five week session, which will be open to daughters of KPAA members, ages 12 thru 17 years.

The class will be limited to 25 girls, and will be under the supervision of Mrs. Thelma Rhode, a professional charm instructor and fashion model, who is currently teaching charm courses as part of the Secretarial Training Program at Kodak Park and Kodak Office.

The course will stress the following:

- Posture, poise and personality
- Wardrobe planning
- Skin care and make-up
- Hair care and styling
- Personal grooming and figure control
- Natural graces and self-assurance.

A deposit of $5 must accompany each registration taken at the KPAA office.

For further information please call Ext. 76192.

KPAA GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

Starting October 12 and continuing until March, the KPAA will sponsor a girls' volleyball program in the E. K. Recreation Center. Games will be held every Tuesday evening starting at 7:30 p.m.

A volleyball clinic will be included in the program, as well as various tournaments with the Kodak Office girls league.

To register, call Cathy Tucker, Ext. 76192.

WOMEN'S PHYSICAL FITNESS

Openings are still available in the physical fitness housewives class. The classes are held every Tuesday and Thursday morning, starting October 12, from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. Registration fee for the five week series is $1.00. For more information, call Cathy Tucker, Ext. 76192.

K.P.A.A. COIN CLUB

The October meeting of the KPAA Coin Club will be held on Thursday, October 14 in the sub-basement, Room 48, Bldg. 28 starting at 7:30 P.M. Our speaker for the evening will be one of our own members, Henry Rice, who will talk about his collection of "Ships on Coins".

This month's auction following the regular meeting will feature Buffalo nickels. Good bargains always turn up in the auction in all coin and paper money categories, so come prepared to bid!

The new Eisenhower dollars have begun to reach area collectors, so there should be plenty on hand for viewing at the meeting. There may even be some duplicates for sale in case you missed your chance to order either the Proof or Uncirculated specimens. Speaking of Proofs, don't forget that the orders for the 1972 U. S. Proof sets will be coming soon and will be accepted starting November 1. If you are not a regular mint customer who will receive a pre-punched card, you can place your order by writing to the following address:

Officer in Charge, U.S. Assay Office
Numismatic Service
50 Fell Street

San Francisco, California 94102

Price is $5 per set with a 5-set limit per order (barring any changes from last year).

On the social side, we hear that Rick and Jan Hibbs have recently added a Brilliant Uncirculated little gem to their family collection. Her name is Deanna, born on August 5. Congratulations!

One final reminder: the Empire State Numismatic Association (ESNA) Convention will be held at the Hotel Woodruff in Watertown, N.Y. on October 15-17. The extensive bourse and outstanding displays make this annual event well worth the trip if you can make it.

See you all with us on the 14th.

KARATE CLASSES

Applications for Tae Kwon Do (Korean Karate) class to be sponsored by the KPAA are now being accepted at the KPAA office, Building 28. Sessions begin October 12.

The 10-week course is open to KPAA members and their immediate families (15 years or older) living in the same household. Instructions will be given every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 7 to 9 p.m. in the E. K. Recreation Center gymnasium annex. The fee is $20 which includes purchase of a uniform. Payable at first class.

Supervising the classes will be Richard Grant who is affiliated with the Park Jong Soo Tae Kwon Do Institute of Toronto. Mr. Park holds a sixth degree black belt and was Korean Grand National Champion in 1964. He will travel to Rochester for special demonstrations and to administer grading tests for promotion to higher belts.

For additional information, call the KPAA office, Ext. 72193 or 72194.

K.P.A.A. SKI CLUB

Well, here it is October! Time to bring those skis out of storage and get them ready for another season. Now is the time to have your bindings checked, and possibly have your skis refinished, before the ski shops become too busy.

On September 12, the Ski Club held its third annual Car Rally and Picnic. This was the biggest rally we have ever held. Fifty-two cars were registered by start-off time at 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning. After leaving Webster Plaza, the contestants stood their ground against such formidable opponents as "Boerman's Upholstery", "George H. Stickland", various dirt roads, old cooking kettles, and donkey cart yard ornaments. By the end of the rally, and in many cases well before the end, all the drivers and navigators were ready to unwind at the picnic. Bev Azzareto and her committee - Brenda Jordan, Sue Greenberg and Sam Sagaria - did a very fine job of organizing this year's picnic. While everyone was finally gathered in one place, Sharon Williams and Dave Goebel, this year's rally co-chairmen, awarded the trophies to the driver and navigator of the three best-scoring cars. In third place were Jim and Gail Barry. Second place went to Ralph and Priscilla Priebe, and first place went to Steve and Peg Hoas. Congratulations to all the winners and a wish for better luck next year goes to everyone else. A complete list of the order of finish will be available at the spaghetti dinner October 6.

The club would like to thank everyone who donated his time to help make this year's rally and picnic the most successful ever. A special thanks goes to the Corvair Owners Club of Rochester for letting us use their stop-watches at our checkpoints.

October appears to be the busiest month on our schedule of events for the coming year. On Wednesday, October 6, Sunday, October 17, is the date of this year's clambake. It will be held from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. at Hamlin Beach State Park, West Bluff Shelter #2. Bill Warren says not to plan on eating until 3 P.M. since Dick McElroy has enough activities planned to keep everyone busy until then. Keeping in line with President Nixon's price freeze, we have kept the price of a steak dinner at $3.25 each and clams will be 65¢ a dozen. Tickets will be available thru October 8 in the KPAA Office 3rd floor, B-28.

John Jay is coming back to visit us again this year, and he is bringing along his brand new movie, "The World of Skiing". The film has never been shown in Rochester. During the intermission, some of the girls from the club will model the latest ski fashions from local ski shops. Door prizes will also be awarded to lucky members of the audience. The date for this show is Saturday, October 23. It will be held in the E. K. Recreation Center Auditorium in B-28, and tickets are only $1 for adults and 50¢ for children. This is a good family entertainment, so buy your tickets early either from the KPAA or from a Ski Club representative.

This year's trip to Gray Rocks looks like an overwhelming success. Over 100 members of the Ski Club have made reservations for the trip. It looks like a three-bus caravan will be heading for St. Jovite this year.

If you are planning on taking advantage of the European Ski Trip to Switzerland next March, don't forget to sign up Saturday, October 9. This trip was a huge success last year and it looks as if it will be even more popular this year.

Our November meeting will be a little bit different this year, so watch for news of what we have planned. See you at all the October events.

Hi Race Fans:

The 1971 racing season is drawing to a close, in fact, most area tracks are closed. Boy, what a short summer.

For those of you who like to travel a little, racing is still available at 5-mile Point in Binghamton, N.Y. every Saturday evening through October 16. The big Langhorne National Championship race is October 9 & 10.

The New York State Modified Championship has been most interesting this year with a see-saw battle between Merv Treichler and Richie Evans. At this writing there are three more weeks of competition, with more than 1,100 points available. The state point winner takes the lion's share of the $10,000 prize money plus special awards donated by the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and worth $500. After the Labor Day weekend, Richie Evans was leading the field in points, followed by Merv Treichler, Lou Lazzaro of Utica, Mike Loescher, Coldwater, N.Y. and Sonny Seamon, Vernon, N.Y.

Want a fine Christmas gift suggestion? Purchase a 12" X 14" color picture of the 1970 Langhorne pace lap. Costs only $1 and it's mounted on heavy board ready for framing. Interested? Call Marilyn Nolte, Ext. 75514. All receipts go into the New York State Championship Fund to be distributed to drivers.

The children's essay contest on favorite drivers, held in conjunction with our Kodak Nite at Lancaster Speedway on August 28, was won by Roberta Doerr, 8 yr. old daughter of Jerry Doerr, Film Emulsion, and David Sable, 10 yr. old son of Walter Sable, Bldg. 29. By winning the contest, both children were guests of the Lancaster Speedway, visited the tower, rode the pace car, presented Kodak Camera Outfits to the feature winners and rode to the track in the truck carrying the race car. Roberta rode up with Alan Stephens, Car #23, and David rode with Dave Hafner, Car #16X.

Our thanks to both Alan and Dave for their help in providing a very interesting day for the kids. Over 600 Kodak people attended our last Kodak Nite of the season. The good turn out was due to the hard work by the committee of Jeff & Joanne Edwards, and Don & Marilyn Toal.

Important dates to remember:

Friday, November 12 ---Movie Nite, 24 Hours of LeMans with Steve McQueen.

Saturday, March 11, --10th Annual Awards Banquet.

We sure hope Alan Stephens, Field Division, has better luck in 1972. I wonder how many features Marilyn Noltes dirt track modified car won during 1971? How did Dave Cofran, Emulsion Coating Dept. get to all the races? He doesn't have a car. Bus and taxi?

See you at Langhorne on October 9 & 10 and at 5-Mile Point on October 16.

Hi Skating Friends:

Well, I think we are going to have a good time in October. We're going to have George Scheil playing for us on our live music nite. Also, on October 27 we are going to have our Halloween skating party, with door prizes and awards for the best costumes. So let's all come out on Wednesday nites from 7:30 till 10:00 P.M. and have a good time skating.

Our next family skate is scheduled for Sunday, October 17 from 2 till 5 P.M. Remember, skating is a healthy sport, so try it and you'll enjoy it.

Don't forget our Halloween party.

FILM CITY TOASTMASTERS CLUB

The Toastmastering season started September 23 with an interesting round of speeches and impromptu talks.

During October, the club, which is open to all KPAA men, will meet October 7 and October 28 in Bldg. 28 at 5:15 P.M. and on October 21 at Ellison Park for the annual cabin party. With steak and beverage on the menu, the discussions and speeches about the political scene should be heartily received.

Film City Toastmasters has scheduled eighteen meetings this season, ending in June, 1972. The meetings are always on Thursday night and average two per month. The goal is to develop each member's communication and leadership skills through a wide variety of speaking and listening experiences. Anyone interested in attending a meeting may call the president, Sam Chipp, Engineering (Ext. 74181) or membership vice-president, George Havens, DPI (Ext. 85450).

* * * * *

The vacation season barely ends, Labor Day sneaks in out of nowhere, the kids head back to school, and fall is here again. For many, autumn is the best time of the year and I, for one, wholeheartedly endorse that opinion. Sunny and clear is the daily forecast, with cool nights to make relaxing easy. Fall weather brings fishing out of the summer doldrums, and opens up field and forest to the sportsman in search of both big and small game. For those who are not members of the sporting fraternity, fall presents excellent opportunities for hiking and picnicing, and nothing can beat autumn's beautiful foliage as a backdrop for the photographer, whether amateur or professional.

The sounds of autumn outdoors are many and varied. Among the more pleasurable are the high-pitched cackle of a young cock pheasant flushed for the first time by an intruding sportsman giving his dog some early season training. The sound of Canada Geese high in the sky, heading south in majestic V's, are harbingers of colder weather soon to come. The quack of ducks gathering in the local ponds and marshes before flocking up for the final journey south for the winter. All these sights and sounds make the fall outdoor scene a delightful spectacle for both eyes and ears.

Unfortunately, there is another sound which comes on the scene that does not bring quite the same sense of joy to the outdoorsman's heart, and it becomes more prevalent and more ominous year after year. That is the sound of the landowner tacking up his POSTED - NO HUNTING signs. Anyone who has observed trends will note the increasing amount of land no longer accessible to the general public. The reasons for this are many and varied, but it is my contention that the primary reason for and the only one who can change this trend is the hunter himself.

The United States, unlike most other countries of the world, has had a long tradition of free access to most open lands, and courts have upheld that the game on the land is the property of all the people. Obviously, this game becomes inaccessible as soon as the landowner exercises his legitimate right to limit or withdraw access to his property by others. Many will say that the reason for increased posting is the burgeoning population, which increases the number of persons looking for access to open lands while at the same time reducing the amount of land available. But if you ask any landowner, you will probably find that most of them post their property because of a specific incident of abuse by some so-called sportsman which has actually forced the landowner to this reaction as a defensive measure. Among the more commonly cited abuses are cutting down fences, knocking down crops, leaving gates open so that cattle can run loose, or worse yet, shooting his favorite heifer because "she looked like a deer." Worst of all is the nut ("jerk" might be more descriptive) who hunts too close to residential property and doesn't hesitate to shoot in the direction of someone's home in his greedy quest for game. You may know someone like this. He's the guy who hunts with someone different each time because no one dares go out with him a second time -- if he survives the first trip. Even his friends aren't safe! As long as this type of individual is free to run loose, we can expect the trend of increased posted land to continue.

There are some simple, common-sense steps which can be taken to reverse the situation. Most reasonable hunters should be willing to take the time to follow them.

- (1) Always ask for permission to hunt, even if the land is not posted. Don't wait until opening day; drop by in advance and get acquainted.
- (2) Never park in a lane or entrance-way so that free access is blocked.
- (3) Always close any gate through which you pass.
- (4) Don't hunt toward any building, occupied or otherwise, and stay at least 500 feet from any occupied residence.
- (5) Don't hunt any field in which livestock are pastured.
- (6) Drop by on the way out and say "thank you". An offer of some of your take, even if declined, will be appreciated and remembered.
- (7) Don't forget that most land is private property. Respect the landowner's rights. Always consider yourself his guest. Remember, a POSTED sign is a memorial to the non-sportsman.

If you see him violating the landowner's rights or breaking any of the game laws, don't hesitate to get his license number and report him to a peace officer. The land which is kept open may be the only property your sons have in which to hunt in the potentially crowded world of the future.

Good Hunting!
Andy Sperr

The use of carved waterfowl decoys as an aid in hunting originated with the American Indians centuries ago and later grew into a truly American folk art during the days of the first colonists.

Decoy making was developed and refined to such a high degree by early Americans that these hand-carved birds are now highly prized by collectors and bring some fancy prices in the antique shops. Early carvings include not only ducks and geese, but also sandpipers, swans, gulls, crows, loons and many shorebirds. (Loons were especially popular since they were useful as "Confidence" birds by those early hunters.)

As the waterfowl flocks began to dwindle alarmingly due to ever-gunning, the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of 1918 finally brought an end to shorebird gunning and established strict bag limits, length of seasons, and shooting hours for the remainder of the waterfowl population.

Thus these birds are now less threatened by the gunner than they are by greedy real estate developers who are crowding them out of feeding and nesting areas in the north and secluded wintering spots in the south. A continued reduction in the marshes, swamps, and wetlands along migratory routes, as well as air and water pollution everywhere, have been especially hard on these fine birds.

Fortunately, several hundred wildlife sanctuaries have been recently established by our federal government along the major flyways such as Montezuma, north of Seneca Falls and Waterloo, and Oak Orchard and Iroquois northwest of Batavia. An independent organization known as "Ducks Unlimited" has also contributed much to waterfowl survival by constructing many excellent breeding areas all across northern Canada.

It is only through the ceaseless efforts of dedicated conservationists everywhere that most of the valuable waterfowl species are still preserved. It is difficult to imagine that in the days of the early pioneers, vast flocks of these birds could darken the skies for hours along the eastern shores of our country. The remarkable upswing in the population of Canadian geese in recent years offers real hope that our conservation programs are really working.

Thus when today's sportsmen go afield, the decoys they carry with them probably will not have been painfully carved out of wood, rather they will be molded out of plastic, rubber or old scrap paper. However, if you were lucky enough to have inherited some wooden decoys from your grandpa, remember they may be worth more money to today's decoy collector than the finest gun you can buy.

Best always,
Ray Estes

BRIDGE

CLUB

The fall season of duplicate bridge sponsored by the KPAA Bridge Club got off to an excellent start after the Labor Day holiday. Judging by attendance at the Monday night games and lessons, this will be another banner year. About 80 people signed up for the beginning and intermediate bridge lessons, and 27 tables (108 players) competed in the regular duplicate bridge games.

After eight months of play in the 1971 trophy races, the leaders are still tightly bunched. The Director's Trophy competition, based on the best 15 scores during the year, now includes:

Dalton Tuite	62.3	Mrs. Jack Stateler	59.8
George Zolovick	62.2	Dave Chen	59.7
Fred Garver	61.2	Mrs. Ross Militello	59.5
Wil Battey	60.5	John Donovan	59.0
Mrs. Henry Kascher	60.1	Ross Militello	58.4

Another trophy is awarded each year to the player showing the best percentage improvement in his top 15 scores. This year this race is led by Mrs. Ross Militello with a percentage of 7.6, followed by Tom Peterson (7.5%), Dick Chesley (7.2%), Mrs. Anne Vosburgh (7.2%) and Mrs. Mike Levin (4.9%).

A third trophy is awarded to the player with the best average score for all 1971 games. The leaders are now George Zolovick (58.3%), Dalton Tuite (57.8%), Skip Toombs (57.6%), Nelson Case (56.5%) and Hal Cole (56.4%).

The Industrial Bridge League has expanded to sixteen teams for 1971-72. Two divisions of eight teams each will compete, with the two divisions leaders meeting next June for the league championship. Four Kodak teams started the year with perfect records, winning all three September matches. The standings are:

Division I		Division II
Kodak (Ambrose)	3-0	Kodak (Smith)	3-0
Kodak (Chen)	3-0	Kodak (Brahm)	3-0
Gleasons I	2-1	Xerox Gold	2-1
Kodak (Rasch)	2-1	Xerox Blue	1-2
Kodak (Toombs)	1-2	Kodak (Walsh)	1-2
Lawyers Co-op	1-2	Burroughs	1-2
Xerox Purple	0-3	General Railway Signal	1-2
R.G. and E	0-3	Gleasons II	0-3

The next match is scheduled at Xerox on October 14.

The Upper New York State Regional, the only red point event in our area each year, will be held in Buffalo October 6-10. Many Kodak people will attend, especially for the Swiss Team-of-Four event, on Sunday, October 10. Another tournament, the Rochester Fall Sectional, will also be held in October. This three day event (October 29, 30, 31) will be held at the Towne House Motor Inn. This is one of the two sectionals tournaments held in Rochester each year.
