The Gold and Black

For our loyal Alma Mater,
Ev'ry son of dear McQuaid,
Finds his heart is beating faster
When the Knights are on parade.
And though years may pass behind us,
Still our hearts will call us back;
And as mem'ries relive again,
We'll stand up and cheer again
The dear old Gold and Black.

Cheer for the gold; cheer for the black;
Cheer for the black and gold.
Cheer for McQuaid and the friends we have made,
And the mem'ries as yet untold.

Let us cheer our Alma Mater;
Let us raise our voices high;
Let our chorus swell like thunder
As it strikes against the sky.
And when victory seems doubtful,
Let all Knights stand back to back
And fight 'till McQuaid has won,
And then when the battle's done
We'll cheer the Gold and Black.
