

“THANK GOD I’M AN AMERICAN!”

Every American has many reasons to give thanks for the privileges and freedoms which we enjoy in this country. We can help maintain them by purchasing more United States War Bonds in November.

SIMPLER MENUS FOR HOLIDAY DINNERS THIS YEAR

As we approach the holiday season this year, we are faced with the problem of food shortages and rations, and now, more than ever before, we have a chance to test the real meaning of our holidays.

This year our menus will be simpler. Less time can be allowed for preparation and more ingenuity will have to be used to make the foods we use stretch farther.

Listed below is a menu full of tradition, but simple and easy to prepare. Regardless of the time of day it is served, it will be good and will satisfy your family.

It is impossible to give all of the recipes here, so why not ask for our special bulletin entitled, "Thanksgiving 1942."

Menu for Thanksgiving Dinner, 1942

Pear Cup

Roast Turkey—Stuffing

Cranberry Sauce

Browned Potatoes Toasted Carrots

Red Cabbage and Apple Salad Cornmeal Sticks

Sweet Potato Pie

Nuts Mulled Cider

1. Pear Cup—use home canned pears diced with lemon juice or lime juice; garnish with mint and cherries.
2. The turkey—Stuff and truss your turkey the day before. Figure out the time it should roast. Roast for 1 hour less than time figured, using our regular directions for roasting. Allow to cool, but do not cover and do not store in the refrigerator. The next day, one hour before serving, cover and place in a 350° F oven to reheat and finish the roasting.
3. The potatoes and carrots are placed in the oven with the turkey.
4. Stretch your sugar ration when making cranberry sauce, by using 1 cup corn syrup or ½ cup honey in place of 1 cup sugar. Cut liquid by ¼ cup for the corn syrup and by 2 tablespoons for the honey.
5. Pumpkin or squash pie may be used in place of the sweet potato if desired. Don't forget honey, molasses or maple syrup will make a good sweetening for your pie.
6. Serve hot mulled cider in mugs in place of coffee or tea.
7. Stuffed pork chops, cushion roast of pork or lamb, stuffed boned shoulder or poultry may be used in place of the turkey.

NOTE: A few of our customers will receive this copy of the R. G. & E. Messenger after Thanksgiving Day but the menu given above is still a good one for any Sunday or Holiday dinner.

REMEMBER THE BOYS IN CAMP

Don't forget even though our boys in camp get plenty to eat, they will love a Thanksgiving box from home. What to send? Here is a list of suggestions, and we will be glad to supply the recipes: Salted nuts, candied fruit peel, cookies, filled tarts, fruit cake, candy and apples.

COOKERY DEMONSTRATIONS

Every homemaker can do something toward winning the war. One of the most important things she can do is to use every bit of food wisely. Our demonstrations are planned to give the latest information on the food situation. Come in and let us help you. The demonstrations are free and are held in the Home Service Kitchens at 89 East Avenue.

Week of Nov. 2—"Why Not Make it at Home?"

Week of Nov. 9—"When Your Family Does Shift Work"

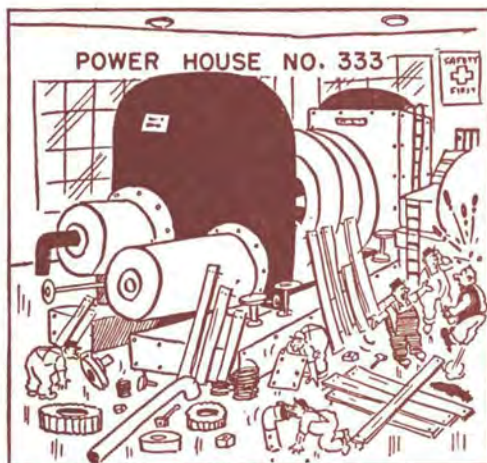

Week of Nov. 16—"Thanksgiving 1942"

Week of Nov. 30—"Share Your Christmas Cookies with Others"

Week of Dec. 7—"Good Substitutes for Meat"

Week of Dec. 14—"Holiday Suggestions"

There are two demonstrations each week— at 7:30 Monday evenings and 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoons.

"THANK GOD YOU'RE AN AMERICAN!" IS SLOGAN FOR NOVEMBER WAR BOND CAMPAIGN

The slogan for the November War Bond drive is "Thank God You're an American!" In Rochester the campaign is being conducted under the sponsorship of the retail stores.

The reasons why everyone of us should give thanks daily for the privilege of living in this country are so obvious that it isn't necessary to catalogue them here. It is necessary, however, to keep reminding ourselves that unless we win this war these reasons will no longer exist and we shall lose everything we cherish. The best way that those of us on the Home Front can make sure that we shall win the war, and win it in the shortest possible time, is to buy more War Bonds.

The 50-caliber Anti-aircraft machine gun pictured here is being effectively used by the Marine Corps and by the Army in the fighting in the Far East. Either mounted or on a mobile base these guns are used to raze low flying enemy planes. A thousand rounds of ammunition costs about $240 and the guns fire about 600 rounds per minute. Your purchase of more War Bonds will keep them firing.

Remember . . . you don't give money to your country when you purchase War Bonds. You lend it at attractive interest rates because every three dollars you invest will bring you back four dollars later.

Buy more War Bonds now and buy as many as you can.

FOUR GOOD WAYS TO SAVE

Here are four good ways to save:

1. SHOP WISELY. Be adaptable and use available foods to best advantage.
2. PLAN BALANCED MEALS. For good health be sure your family gets the right food.
3. CONSERVE FUEL. Don't turn on burner until utensil is ready. Turn off burner before removing utensil. When boiling starts turn burner down. Take advantage of the superior time and fuel-saving features of your range.
4. BUY WAR SAVINGS BONDS and STAMPS

IT'S NO USE, ADOLF . . .

You can't shut out that sound that's ringing in your ears.

It's the hum of American men and women and machines at work 24 hours per day. They are free men and women . . . the world's finest workers . . . working hard and fast because they want to remain free.

Superb machines, operated by the world's greatest supply of electric power, are turning out weapons of war in ever increasing proportions.

American business management teamed with American workers are responsible for most of that electric hum, Adolf—that ceaseless insistent hum—that will rise and roll and beat upon your brain and your nerves until you can hardly hear our bombers roaring overhead.

It's the hum of fate, Adolf!

Don't forget to check up on your household appliances and call a service man in your neighborhood if anything goes wrong. The appliances we now possess must do for the duration.

With meatless days in prospect every housewife will be looking for nutritious and appetizing substitutes. The R. G. & E. Home Service Department has prepared a special bulletin on this subject that is free for the asking.

Perhaps the fuel shortage and lower house temperatures will restore the old red flannels to popularity this winter. But gosh, supposing we can't get the flannels!

THE EMPTY ROOM

This is my boy's room.

This is where he slept.

This is where he dreamed a child's dreams.

This is where he saw a man's visions.

Here, in this empty room, are faded pictures of team mates and heroes... books scribbled over with notes and exclamations... the gloves and spiked shoes we hung up for good before he went to war... the silver cup he won at Sea Bright... bright pennants... and all the careless memoranda, the echoes of his days.

If fathers could only pour their hate through the hot barrels of smoking guns, and write the records of their grief with bayonet steel!

They said I was too old to fight, though I'm only fifty. But, if I'm too old to sight and drop a stick of bombs, I'm not too old to lay my money on the line for war savings stamps and bonds!

Maybe I am too stiff and slow to fly, but I've got control enough to keep my car speed under 35... so they can keep their fighting planes above 400!

And if I can't march thirty miles a day with a full pack, I can walk two miles to work and back to help save gas and rubber!

No, I'm not bitter any more because I won't win this war behind a gun or on a ship or in the sky.

I've come around to thinking that here at home we've got the job of passing the ammunition along, of sacrificing little things, of giving up and going without, of looking ahead to "less" instead of "more." Somebody's got to do the necessary, undramatic things... and I guess that's what older men are for.
