SWIMMING RACE FROM COBOURG TO CHARLOTTE

Longdistance swimming is the rage, and many of our local swimmers are yearning for a chance to show their speed and endurance. A number of sportsmen have agitated a swimming race from Charlotte to Cobourg, approximately 40 miles, as Rochester's contribution to the latest sporting fad. It would be a marvelous advertisement for the city. Suggestion has been made that an attractive cash prize be raised by popular subscription. A race across Lake Ontario, from Cobourg to Charlotte, would be minus the treacherous tides and currents of the English and Catalina

JOY FOR THE ORPHANS

Orphans from asylums and children's homes will be guests of the Chatterbox Revue at the Tuesday matinee in the Lyceum theater.

"Mrs. Stanyard is going with her husband to Florida for the month of March," wrote a country correspondent. Easy to tell who wears 'em in that family. It was very considerate of Mrs. Stanyard to take her husband along. Some men are lucky.

TALKING PICTURES

Talking motion pictures will be displayed in Baptist Temple March 11, 12 and 14, Dr. Clinton Wunder having negotiated for the phonofilm, the latest screen marvel. These talking pictures are made by recording the voices on the film at the same time the picture is exhibited. Speeches and musical concerts are on the program.

Married men have the advantage of bachelors. A married man took his wife to a restaurant after theater and it cost him only $2.50. A bachelor took his sweetheart to a restaurant after theater, and it set him back just $16. Moral: Get married.

Beware what you say, young man. The charming daughter of a wealthy farmer heard her beau say: "I worship the ground you walk on," and then she jilted him. The ground she walked on was worth $800 an acre.

Weather Made to Order the Latest

Dr. Ford A. Carpenter to Tell Rochesterians How Weather Is Manufactured

Dr. Ford A. Carpenter of Los Angeles, the country's foremost "flying weather man," will deliver an address on such fascinating topics as the psychology of weather, the making of weather, its affect on business, and thrilling personal adventures in the sky in the face of the best and worst of weather, at a luncheon meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday, March 2, at 12:15 o'clock. The following local organizations are cooperating with the Chamber in sponsoring the meeting: American Chemical Society, Rochester Section; American Institute of Electrical Engineering, Rochester Section; Rochester Academy of Science, Rochester Engineering Society, Rochester Flying Club.

This fellow is assured of sunshine: A man named Burns married a girl with the midsummer name of Miss June August. Lucky fellow to have sunshine all his life.

Only one month to All Fools Day. Some fools have a day every day.

Business Girl Was Taken in by Friend

Investors Protective Committee Got on the Job and Saved the Foolish Investor $250

Prompt action on the part of the Investors Protective Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has just saved considerable money for a young business woman of this city. The City of Newark, N. J., also has an Investors' Protective Committee and when a so-called broker from Newark called on long distance telephone and persuaded the Rochester girl to buy oil stock in an unknown company by representing that a "friend" of hers was a heavy investor, her employer began investigating through the Chamber.

Two hundred and fifty dollars were saved for this young woman and an equal amount will be recovered, it is expected. Investigation revealed that the manager of the Newark brokerage house is a man who has absolutely no standing.

A man who leaves his wife is not a deserter, he is a refugee.

CARELESS PERSONS

Many persons are careless. Valuables are left in clothes to be sent to the laundry or to a cleaner. It is not unusual for a laundryman to find a ring—engagement and wedding kinds included—in a garment. All sorts of pins, medals, sacred articles, watches and knickknacks are found in pockets, carelessly left there. All these valuables are returned to the owners. There is always a very anxious inquiry for a ring, especially by a married woman. The superstition that the loss of a wedding ring will bring tragedy into the house still prevails. One man was so careless as to leave his bankbook in his trousers pocket.

IS GORDON SANE OR INSANE

Friends of Harry Gordon, self-confessed slayer of two butchers, are said to be prepared to testify to his insanity. Ray Fowler, it is reported, will be assigned to defend Gordon. Jimmy Cuff was originally selected for that task, it is reported. The defense will be insanity, and upwards of 100 persons will be called to testify in Gordon's behalf to save him from the electric chair, if possible. The fact that Gordon offered to plead guilty in Police Court to murder, first degree, will not militate against him, inasmuch as the murders are admitted. No person is permitted by law to plead guilty to murder, first degree. If the district attorney would accept a plea of murder, second degree, which is not probable, Gordon presumably would not agree to plead to that degree.

Here's hoping the movement for sidepaths for pedestrians along country highways will succeed. No outdoor sport compares with a brisk walk into the country, but autos have killed that pastime by making it too dangerous to walk in roadways. If a pedestrian goes cross-country he is greeted by dogs and bulls. Years ago sidepaths were constructed for bicyclists.

Building craftsmen in Rochester will be interested in the announcement that contractors at Buffalo have refused to grant the 40-hour week at the 44-hour wage scale to the building craft there. The contractors oppose a shorter week with the same pay on the grounds that if building costs increase there will be little or no construction work.

AIRMAIL

Frank C. Metcalf, superintendent of mails, announces airmail connection with overnight plane (New York-Chicago) is established, via Cleveland, O. Mail closes at Rochester main post-office at 4:45 p. m., daily except Sunday, and pouch is mailed from that office only. Airmail for practically all southwest states, and also for Minnesota and Wisconsin, is advanced. Rate for airmail is 10 cents per each half ounce or fraction, regardless of distance.

SWIMMING RACE FROM COBOURG TO CHARLOTTE

Island channels, but it would be an endurance test anyhow. To swim forty miles is no easy task, even in smooth water.

Geroge Young, who won the Catalina endurance test, undoubtedly would enter a race from Cobourg to Charlotte, and so would many other Canadians. Also a race across Lake Ontario would draw crack swimmers from all over the United States. Trudy Ederle, queen of the English channel, says she is through with longdistance contests, but she is apt to change her mind any time an attractive prize is offered.

Rochester has many swimming stars. Miss Isabelle Wilson, instructor at the Elks swimming pool, for instance, holds several world's records. Recently she accomplished the difficult feat of standing on her head two minutes in eight feet of water without use of her arms. This feat was later duplicated by John Fleming, instructor at the same pool. Fleming is a wonderful underwater swimmer, having covered 75 feet with only a few strokes. He swam the 75 feet on the water surface in three seconds. Miss Wilson holds the local endurance record for underwater speed.

GIVEN AWAY BY THEIR GIRLS

Find the girl and you will solve the mystery. Detectives Andrews, Smylie and Doherty performed one of the best pieces of police work in headquarters history when they traced a pair of bandits through love letters written by silly girls. Bandits invariably seek the solace and thrill of gay females, to whom a man with a wild or vicious career is a hero. All three gangs of bandits recently rounded up in Rochester had sweethearts, and some of the girls are alleged to be implicated in several hold-ups. The merchants of Rochester feel easier by reason of the arrest of the bandits, as no man's life was safe, and the quicker the guilty culprits are sent to prison for long terms the better for the community. Sentimental persons may sob for bandits receiving severe penalties, but the culprits do not deserve sympathy.

Kaiser Bill rises to announce that he does not plan to return to Berlin. Certainly not. Our boys chased Kaiser Bill from Berlin, and did not give him a return ticket. Remember the time when Kaiser Bill said he intended to visit Paris, and sent 5,000,000 men ahead to pave the way. He never reached Paris.

Rear seat drivers are to be taught—in a school—how to run cars. Useless instruction. They all know how to run a car.

The average whitefish in Lake Ontario annually spawns 66,000 eggs, but less than one per cent. is hatched. Pollution, or some enemy, destroys the eggs.

NO PLACE FOR HENS

The egg yield of Western New York is threatened. Poultry keepers inform the writer that hens are so agitated by the approach of an airplane that the birds are actually "thrown" out of form. The airplane, appearing in the sky like a giant hawk, is a new source of fright for hens, old and young. A bird in healthy laying condition will cease producing eggs if frightened by any object in the air or on land. Even the sight of a strange person entering a coop has been known to disastrously affect laying birds. With the promised increase in number of airplanes poultry keepers fear the egg yield will be alarmingly reduced.

In these days of long distance traveling, and of entertainment, it is almost impossible, Dr. Clinton Wunder implies, to avoid violating the Scriptural teaching not do to any work on the Sabbath, nor to allow your servant to work on that day. How would many persons get to church if street cars and taxicabs did not run? Also there would be many dinnerless houses if cooks were forbidden work on Sabbath days. There is palliation to this Thou Shalt Not, inasmuch as there is a difference as to whether Sunday or Saturday is Sabbath Day.

Rochester has 2,000 stenographers. That explains why the phone is always busy.

Good morning! Have you had your pancakes smothered in new maple syrup? Yes, the sap is running.

Bock sausage is all the rage. Remember when Bock beer signs used to be advance agents of Easter time?

MEANEST PERSONS

The meanest man has been discovered. He gave a friend's name when pinched by the cops for being in a gay party, alleged to be violating the moral law. Recently an innocent girl's character was threatened when her name was used by another girl, arrested in a joyride. A person who maliciously gives the name of an innocent party should be sent to the penitentiary for a long term. Court records show where a woman sued her husband for separation when she saw his name involved with a wild party. His explanations were not accepted.

FAHNSNACHT PARTY

Fahnsnacht will be observed by the Rochester Liederkrantz. West Main street, on Tuesday evening, March 1. A regular oldtime Fahnsnacht party will be staged, with concert, dancing, card playing on the program, with an abundance of eats appropriate for the occasion.

"Girl dancing the Black Bottom leaped from window to escape deputy sheriff." No this was not in a movie picture; it happened in Brighton, and was about as realistic as was possible. It would have been a thrill for the movies, all right, but the girl did not see any humor in it, as she suffered a broken ankle.

"My husband's name is Pat, but when he's full he thinks he is Gene Tunney," complained a woman in court. Pat looked as if he couldn't lick the northwest corner of Tunney.

We Want a Convention Hall

CONVENTION visitors spent $4,000,000 in Rochester in 1926, according to estimates by the Chamber of Commerce. This is a conservative appraisal. A delegate, or visitor, to a convention spends an average of $20 a day, twenty-five per cent of which goes for merchandise, and an equal amount for hotels, restaurants. Barber shops, beauty parlors, taxicabs, amusements receive proportionate benefits. The city as a whole is a winner. The $4,000,000 left by convention delegates added to Rochester's prosperity, and meant that much more money in circulation.

This is the valuable point to emphasize. A convention is Rochester's best advertisement. Without conventions the city would be dormant. All citizens feel happy and gay when throngs of outsiders are here celebrating. Hospitality is in the air. The delegate returns home with a kind word for Rochester. This induces others to come here to enjoy part of the entertainment. The city would be crowded at all times with spenders if it opened its doors to large conventions. Unfortunately it cannot do so. The present Convention Hall is only a poor apology for a meeting place.

Let the city construct a REAL Convention Hall, to seat 15,000, and delegates to conventions here will leave $40,000,000 a year instead of one-tenth that amount. Also local needs demand a spacious auditorium. The State Armory is too small for dances. It was crowded to suffocation the nights of the Shriners' and Firemen's dances, and hundreds remained away because of fear of danger.

One Law, Two Interpretations

ADVOCATES of non-partisanship in selection of Councilmen were given a surprise by This Week in Rochester when it printed the fact that Buffalo nominates its Councilmen by non-partisan ballot, separate entirely from the party emblems and tickets. The State Constitution, and also general laws affecting cities of the first class, affect Rochester and Buffalo alike. If Buffalo can nominate by non-partisan ballot why not Rochester?. Non-partisanship may not be the best method after all, but local sentiment seems anxious to try it. Buffalo plans to return to party responsibility, not because non-partisanship was unsatisfactory to the multitudes, but because Republican leaders did not relish the victory of a Democrat for Councilman in a city having a Republican majority of 40,000. This Democrat is now in control of the important Department of Public Works, with all its jobs, and the Republicans look and feel like icicles. That is why they are sick of non-partisanship.

Kept the Streets Open

MOTOR-CARS deprive street cars of millions of dollars of revenue annually, but that fact did not deter the street car management from cleaning the car-line streets of snow Monday morning so autos could be operated with safety. The street car company deserves praise for its efficiency in keeping its service intact under the most trying conditions. We believe in giving credit where it is due.

Another bookkeeper accused of stealing. Will young men think of the future? It takes a lifetime to live down a disgrace of this kind.

A survey by the Chamber of Commerce of the Rochester buying territory shows a population of approximately 650,000 persons. It may be safely asserted that this purchasing area is the richest in the world, as the Western and Central New York farming districts are the most prosperous in the United States.

643,402 Buyers in Purchasing Area

Rochester in the Midst of a Very Prosperous and Growing Buying Territory

Rochester has at the present time, in addition to its city proper, a substantial metropolitan area and a large trading area. The metropolitan area includes all those who rely on Rochester for their livelihood, including Pittsford, Fairport, East Rochester, Greece, Irondequoit, Gates and Webster.

The purchasing area includes a radius of 50 miles, the majority of the population of which purchase in Rochester. It includes Orleans, Genesee, Wyoming, Monroe, Livingston, Ontario and Wayne counties. In 1925 the population of this area was 643,402.

Women always marry for love. The bride of a few months was granted annulment of her marriage to a man who posed as a millionaire, the judge deciding that it was wrong for a man to deceive his sweetheart.

If a woman uses her brains she can dress on $2,500 a year, announces a dressmaker. Many with brains dress on less than that, because they have to, and are wise.

"Turkey renews relations with Uncle Sam," reads a news item. So kind of turkey, considering what Your Uncle does to turkey.

"Hezekiah Murtram is convalescing in Florida. Mrs. Murtram is with him, and he may recover," wrote a Genesee County correspondent.

It is whispered that a prominent clergyman, noted for his liberal views, contemplates delivering a sermon on the folly of the Volstead Law in forbidding pure beers and wines. This minister, we are informed, has made a personal study of the prohibition situation, getting views from workingmen as well as from reformers and he finds a preponderance of sentiment for good beer and wine.

All that cotton grower, who is hoping for the time when girls again will wear cotton stockings, needs is a lesson in how to raise silk worms. The flappers will stick to silk as long as they wear 'em high.

Man works from sun to sun, woman's work is never done. We heard a woman repeat that adage many times as she cleaned up the dishes used by her husband in his midnight luncheon for the "boys" in the card game. And she uttered those words loud enough so the party could hear her funeral talk.

"To be a vine and want to twine, and have no oak to twine on" wrote a sentimental Bachelor Girl.

Germany has created the job of Beer Smeller, whose duty is to sneak around to prevent the brewing of beer of less than four per cent kick.

What has become of the agitation for a speedway in Monroe County to promote auto races similar to the Indianapolis thrills? Erie county sportsmen are organizing a company to build a stadium containing a 2 1-2 mile speedway, a mile track, and seats for football and baseball games.

Beautiful Dance Hall at Sea Breeze

Take your best girl to the Colonial Club dance. A most delightful time may be had at this club's ballroom, located in Culver Road, opposite the Sea Breeze fire station. It is under the direct management of Mrs. L. C. Lindsey, which fact in itself is an assurance of perfect dining and dancing service. The Colonial Club is making a very charming name for itself, as entertainers, especially on Tuesday and Saturday evenings, when the Hess Colonial Orchestra supplies many hours of the peppy music so fascinating to jazz dancing. On all nights the Brunswick Panatropé produces snappy, colorful music. Mrs. Lindsey is making a specialty of catering to private parties.

What this country needs more than anything else is a return to old fashioned ways. ## Religious Fanatics To Be Driven Out

Three Creeds, Catholics, Protestants, Jews, Join in One Prayer and Acknowledgment of God

Religious bigots—the woods are full of them—better take warning. Enlightenment and tolerance are sweeping like a tidal wave across the country. Fanatics and hypocrites are being driven under cover. There is only one God, and no creed or denomination has a monopoly on the Supreme Deity. As a forerunner of the universal peace and brotherhood which is coming, it is only necessary to point to the pact in Illinois, in which three creeds, Catholics, Protestants and Jews, issued a joint prayer, part of which reads:

"Teach us to put away all bitterness and walk together in the ways of human friendship."

The man who believes his faith alone is right is blind to the real blessings of life.

Sheriff Al Baker is not afraid of the cars. Answering an insinuation that the Republican Organization is creating a War Chest of $100,000, to take the place of passing the hat each year, Sheriff Baker said the Organization has as much right to keep organized as has a ward club. What is an Organization for if it is not organized? The Republicans will need the $100,000 to match against the independents' millions if a Third Party enters, or joins with the Democrats, to control the new Council.

YOUR EYESIGHT AND EFFICIENCY

By B. B. Clark, 12 Gibbs Street

It is the mind which sees, hears, feels, checks and corrects the report of the senses, as is proved by the common expression: "I did not see it; I was thinking of something else." What gives man his power over all the beasts of the fields is not the superiority of his sensuous mechanism, for it is inferior in many respects to that of certain beasts, insects and birds. He triumphs because he is a thinking animal.

All knowledge is acquired through the senses. If any sense is impaired, all your judgments are warped.

Of the various senses of sight, hearing, smell, touch and taste, it is estimated that 85 per cent of all knowledge comes to us through the eyes.

Every function of the eye is calculated to add to our knowledge, increase our usefulness, provide for our entertainment or insure our safety. It is only within a few years that much attention has been paid to the subjects of prevention of blindness, defective vision and the conservation of vision.

When you observe sturdy children who will never see the sunshine or a human face, all because a prophylactic was not dropped in the eyes at birth, it seems only short of criminal, as experience shows that infantile blindness is nearly always preventable.

A greater appreciation of eyesight may not be necessary, but a greater appreciation of the importance of eye care is.

As we have come to appreciate that life itself is of value, we have also come to realize the value of those things that make life worth living, and when we count those things that make life fine and beautiful and rich, we must place this function of human vision at the top of the list.

In the last twenty years the demands on the eyes have greatly increased. Moving pictures, the marked extension of artificial illumination, complicated labor-saving machines that save the hands, but add to the strain of the eyes, to mention only a few factors, all have affected eyesight in varying degrees. In fact, during this period no other organ of the body has had its labors so greatly increased.

Unquestionably, more and more will the intensity and development of our national life extend the strain on our people's physical vision. Students and general readers will grow in numbers. We are now entering fields of fine, delicate craftsmanship hitherto foreign to us. Aviation, which demands fine vision and strains the eyes, will undoubtedly extend tremendously before long.

And, most important of all, the happiness, contentment and efficiency of our people depend not a little on serviceable eyes.

When you see a flivver you generally see Poppily and Momily with a half dozen kids. When you see a high-priced car you see a "swell" woman and a dog.

LAST, BUT WAS FIRST

Disappointed in love one time, a Western New York belle took no chances in her next courtship, or courtships, rather. Instead of confining her affections to one wooer, she teased another young man to call, and recently she startled the community in which she lives by obtaining licenses to marry both admirers. She accompanied one beau to the license bureau in the morning, and while that groom-to-be was out celebrating the glad news, his sweetie walked arm-in-arm with her other wooer into the license bureau and made application. Naturally, the clerk gasped, but he complied with the request, as there is no law limiting the number of marriage licenses a person may obtain. The girl married this second wooer.

In England clergymen have omitted the word "obey" in the happy ceremony. It may as well be omitted over here.

KOLB, Prop.*Special Parties on Short Notice*Genesee 4926*Revolvers Illegally Owned and Carried*Estimated That Thousands in Rochester Possess Guns Without Permits. Why Not Publish Names of Permit Holders?

Thousands of men in Rochester are unlawfully carrying and possessing revolvers. This may sound like a brazen statement, but it is the truth. Almost daily a culprit is caught carrying a gun without a permit. Harry Gordon, who shot up Rochester one night, had two revolvers, one of which was stolen by him from an auto at the Public Market. If Gordon had not had the two revolvers he would be a free man today, and two dead butchers would not be dead.

A few years ago the police discovered a regular sale in revolver permits. Any man, citizen or foreigner, could get a permit if he had $50. Mail order houses used to dump revolvers by the carload into Rochester, but they have ceased that transaction, a prohibitive law having been enacted by Congress. Thousands of these dangerous weapons are possessed in Rochester, and there is no telling when the next gun toter will go on the rampage. Nobody's life is safe.

Why wouldn't it be prudent to publish the names of all persons having revolver permits, and the reasons why said permits were issued? Surely, no person having legitimate need for a revolver, such as a payroll carrier or night watchman, would not protest at giving the reason why he or she applied for a permit. Yes, women carry revolvers too. If a list of all permits was published, the police could then comb the city for illegal gun toters. Give each unlicensed gun carrier five years.

Echoes of the glorious past. The Times-Union in its reproduction of stirring events 25 years ago, contained this interesting item: A riot was caused in State Street when a man shouted in Otto Wulff's saloon that "A Dutchman had no right to run an Irish saloon."

Be kind to animals. A pet cat meowed and saved the lives of three persons at Rock Beach.

WHEN WORK IS PLEASURE

Work one enjoys is a pleasure. If the job is vexatious, quit. A man—or woman—cannot give 100 per cent. return if in an irritable mood. The adage that nothing succeeds like success applies to work; a job one likes is an all-day pleasure; a job a person does not like is not the job for him or her. Take yourself into a private room, and ask yourself if you like the job or not. Do not be persuaded by sentiment. Just because Jack Millionaire is in Florida having a regular time does not mean that you should be there too. Jack Millionaire may have been born wealthy, may have inherited wealth, or may have been lucky in investments. This would be a peculiar world if all persons were rich—Florida would not be large enough to accommodate them. If you are poor you can enjoy yourself too, but not in a distasteful job.

When the Old Boys hold a reunion they all have a good time, and tell of the days when they were young. Who ever heard of the Old Girls reunion? It is impossible, as girls do not get old.

Kicks Against Jury Service for Women

One Husband Who Sees No Comedy in the Possibility of His Wife Staying Out All Night for Jury Service

Editor, This Week In Rochester.
Sir:

I hereby protest against the proposed State Law to permit women to serve as jurors. Women claim that privilege as part of their Equal Rights program. Jury duty is strictly and exclusively a man's duty. Few men, I confess, hate to serve unless they are idle, but it is their duty to the community. If women serve on a jury and the jury is locked up overnight, as frequently is ordered, there will be the perplexing problem of a half dozen men and a similar number of women being compelled to spend the night away from home. No man approves of his wife staying out all night.

We are married, have three children, my wife is an excellent housekeeper, and is always prompt in serving meals. Supposing she was accepted for jury service, and had to remain away from home for several weeks, what would I do? It would not look morally proper for me to hire a housekeeper to take my wife's place.

Women's rights are all right to a certain extent. The women have the vote, they hold public office, they run the schools, and most of the homes. Also they are assured a dower right. A husband has to take his chances of inheriting his wife's property, or even a slice of it, but his wife is guaranteed by law a liberal share of his property. A husband can be arrested for non-support, or abandonment, but a wife does not face those penalties, even if she forsakes her family.

I claim women have sufficient rights. It's time the men demanded Equal Rights. If ever my wife serves on a jury I will make some persons' ears burn.

A. Kicker.

To keep Red Hot stands off a proposed new highway, between Mt. Morris and Portage, the state has acquired a wide right-of-way on each side of the road. The Red Hot stand is all right, and does not obscure motorists' view, as do the signs.

The old-fashioned woman has again been discovered. She lives in a small city in Ohio, and she complained of the scanty covering of chorus girls in billboards. Wonder how that old-fashioned woman hides her face when the town beauty walks by.

March is the month for wind. Favorable time for tightwads to blow themselves.

Every story has two sides, and we generally hear the most sensational side.

"Ladies, haircuts 50 cents, shave 25 cents" reads a barbershop sign. Has it come to that?

Boys, carry a mouse in your pocket. Girl bandits are around. There's no protection like a live mouse.

John H. Odenbach, president of the Dolomite Products, is the happiest man in Rochester. Natural gas was discovered on his 140-acre quarry in Buffalo Road, with a flow of 100,000 cubic feet a day. This may increase to double that capacity. The Dolomite will pipe this natural gas, and use it for fuel. More wells will be drilled and if a further supply of gas is found it will be piped for fuel to other firms.

A bomb was thrown in and a bum was thrown out of Norton Street.

GAYETY

Harry M. Strouse, a veteran Columbia Circuit producer, will bring his newest opus, "Talk of the Town" and "The Derby Winner" into the Gayety theater for the week beginning with the Monday, February 28, matinee.

Those participating in this clever Columbia Burlesque are Charles "Slim" Timblin, versatile blackface and "boob"; Al Ridgeway, a tramp character; Walter Deering, splendid straight man who is likewise a singer; Billy Barnes, a fashionable juvenile; Will Rodgers, who lends valiant aid on numerous occasions through the cleverness of his character impersonations.

Among the feminine leads are Miss Val Russell, blackface character; Helen Harris, blues singer, and Vivian Kent.

REGENT

A comedy of a working girl, who earns her living as a hostess in a big Coney Island dance hall, will bring Dorothy Mackaill to the Regent Sunday, February 27, for the entire week. It is entitled "Just Another Blonde," and puts the charming young star in another of the joyous and sparkling roles that have been carrying her to the fore as one of the screen's foremost comedienne. The picture brings Miss Mackaill in her second comedy with Jack Mulhall within the last few months. Others in the cast include Louise Brooks and William Collier, Jr.

There are many colorful scenes showing various angles of Coney Island, Luna Park and other New York amusement places. There are also many thrills, the finish coming with a spectacular airplane crash that results from the plane losing a wheel in a nose dive and then attempting a landing.

The stage feature is a musical skit by the Balboni Five, Columbia recording quintette on the piano-accordion. Their offering is called "A Night in Moscow."

The act also has several dancing numbers of an unusual nature. The supplementary program on the screen has the usual assortment of news events reels, a short comedy film called "Why Girls Say No"; a novelty, "Fishing in Many Waters," and other short features.

PICCADILLY

Mae Murray has the role of a fiery, tempestuous little gypsy dancing girl in her first production of the new season at the Piccadilly Sunday, February 27, for the entire week, bearing the alluring title, "Valencia." It is a gay, romantic tale with a dash of sparkling humor and a modern Spanish locale. In order to reproduce the color and picturesque charm of Barcelona, where the majority of the story unfolds, a corner of the old city was built on one of the enormous Metro-Goldwyn lots along with a replica of the famous Royal Gardens of Barcelona, the oldest and considered the most beautiful garden in Europe.

In the cast with the star are Roy D'Arcy, who made his bid for fame with her in "The Merry Widow"; Lloyd Hughes, as leading man, and Max Barwyn.

Harry Langdon will provide the comedy side of the supplementary program with a rollicking comedy called "Saturday Afternoon." Other features will include a musical entr'acte by Arthur Newberry's Piccadilly Jazz Orchestra, an Aesop Fable, Piccadilly News Pictorial and the usual shorter film subjects.

the elements that go into the everyday life of the uniformed firefighter—are woven into "The Fire Brigade," spectacular film spectacle at the Eastman the entire week of February 27, with the exception of Thursday afternoon and evening.

"The Fire Brigade" is a thrilling picture. There is an element of heart interest in the story centering about a mother, who gives her third son to the department, and an appealing, romantic interest in which the young rookie and the daughter of a crooked millionaire tenement owner are the principals. The stellar roles are filled by May McAvoy and Charles Ray.

The musical number for the week by the Eastman Theater Orchestra is von Suppe's overture, "Morning, Noon and Night." Stage features will include a song novelty offered by Dorothy Drakeley and Rose Quigley, and an elaborate stage specialty, called "The Ladder and the Hose," presented by the Eastman Theater Company. Other supplementary numbers will include an organ selection, The Coronation March from "The Prophet," by Beatrice Ryan.

CORINTHIAN

"Parisian Flappers" is the attraction at the Corinthian the week of February 28, with the dashing Stella Morrissey as Major-Domo of the flappers, and vivacious Flossie DeVere as chief of staff.

It is said that the "Parisian Flappers" contains several new faces that have been the means of adding a little more animation, artistry and grace to the performance, and that the efforts of Frank Anderson, the funny little tramp comedian, are as hilariously humorous as ever.

Army men claim we need more tanks. If they will sneak around on State street they may find an extra supply of tanks.

A lecturer rises to inform us that no longer is marriage a lottery; that the boy and girl enter matrimony with complete knowledge of what it means.

There was more than half-of-one per cent. comedy in the remark of a husband weighing 125 pounds and referring to his ponderous wife—weighing 300—as his better half. If 300 is the better half of 125 what is the use of teaching division in schools?

The fat woman in the side show may be missing from the circus curiosities this summer, as she was recently married. She gave the name of Miss Jolly, and modestly confessed that she had "reduced" her weight to 550 pounds.

"It was the old story of a young girl and an elderly man not suited to each other, and I soon realized that" was the complaint filed by an 18-year-old bride for annulment of her marriage to a wealthy man. She received a check for $75,000 from her aged mate on promise not to divulge contents of letters he had written.

Little spots of tan indicate stronger than words that the other fellow had been in Florida. Usually they boast so much of the warm climate down there that one wonders why they did not stay there.

A lecturer claims women have not changed in 100 years. Presumably he is blind. Does he think the old fashioned woman looked and acted like the modern society queen?

Some men are born lucky, others have luck thrust upon them. Sheriff Al Baker, Captain Jack McDonald and Johnny Doyle, of the Doyle detective agency, are enroute to Gay Paree to bring a swindler.

No More Privacy in One's Own Home

Open the doors to the Assessors. Word has gone forth that the new army of Assessors' assistants will invade every nook and corner of Rochester and tabulate all the worthwhile possessions of each man, woman and child. If the doors are not voluntarily opened to these invaders, the "law" will be brought into action. The plan is to ascertain—if possible—just what each person possesses, and personal taxes will be levied accordingly. Privacy of one's own home no longer prevails; outsiders will butt in. There will be so many inspectors in the Assessors' office that they will be in each other's way. If you do not see any comedy in this interference with your private affairs you can move into the country, where the Assessors guess at the valuation of your property, and always guess wrong. The tax system in city and towns is a farce. For example, if a houseowner has a porch constructed at a cost of $500 to $1,000, the valuation of that house is raised. This practice of taxing improvements deters thousands from spending money. It cost one man $400 to have his house painted, and the assessed valuation of this house was raised because of this improvement.

Pygmies may be small, intellectual and physically, but they certainly live on the sunny side of Easy street. Pygmies do not pay taxes, and if one pygmy has more food than he needs he shares with his comrades.

Should a woman give up her second husband if her first one returns after an absence of fifteen years? That was the problem facing a woman of forty in Western New York, when her first husband startled her by walking into her house. She believed he was dead, being so informed, and after a lapse of eight years she remarried, and lived happily with her second mate. When the situation was explained to the latter he graciously said he would release his wife from marital relations, and the court granted the petition for annulment. The woman was happy with her second husband.

Chatterbox Revue Best Ever Produced

Beautiful Singers and Dancers, Opera Stars, and a Brilliant Fashion Show on the Program

Society is on its tiptoes in feverish expectancy of the surprises to be seen and heard in the Chatterbox Revue, to be staged in the Lyceum Theater Monday night and Tuesday afternoon and night. No other amateur performance equals the Chatterbox Revue in exquisite dancing and beautiful singing, solo and ensemble. This revue is a honeysuckle of artistic sweetness, and this year the local talent is to be augmented by operatic stars.

Ned Wayburn, world famous as a Follies director, is authority for the statement that the Chatterbox Revue will be the equal of professional shows. Some of Rochester's charming debutantes and matrons have acquired extraordinary skill in dancing.

One of the latest features announced is the engagement of Norval Brelas of the Rochester Opera Company for the Chatterbox Revue. He will sing "Oriental Lady," and a chorus accompaniment will include an oriental dance by twenty-four girls.

Another attractive part will be the Fashion Show, promoted by seven stores, namely, Sibley's, McCurdy's, O'Hara's, Epstein's, Kaufmann's, Eastwood's and the Frances Shoppe. Twelve beautiful models will display all the latest creations in millinery, dresses and shoes, the models being Mrs. Harold C. Townson, Miss Elizabeth Poole, Mrs. John Barrows, Miss Marion Morgan, Miss Mary Clements, Miss Jane Kelly, Miss Anna Bristol, Mrs. Dean Quinby, Miss Enos, Miss Virginia Robinson, Mrs. Glenn Mayo, Miss Katherine Thomas.

A man stubbed his toe in his chase for a wild collar button, and then abused his wife, as if she were to blame. Any sane man knows enough not to search for a collar button.

So far Houdini, the magician, has failed to signal back from the other world, and his wife is said to be getting tired of waiting to hear from him, as he promised.

Some railroads are adding Bibles to the library. Probably the conductor heard what one passenger said in vainly trying to open a car window.

All is not gold that glitters. A letter from Florida brings the sad— for Florida—information that frosts prevailed there this winter. We could mention names.

A certain lady, living in the Twelfth Ward, gave a number of our dignified citizens a shock to-day when the coupe she was driving got stuck in a snowbank, and the fair driver let go a volley of oaths which would have done credit to a drunken sailor. And the tur-rur-ri-ble words poured forth from dainty lips as if swearing was a familiar habit with her.

"Women's faces repaired and renewed" advertises a beauty expert. We accept that challenge—on behalf of a certain woman sadly in need of repairs.

One of the colorful features of a Chinese funeral is the spreading of food delicacies, such as chicken, rice, fruits, from the grave to a point far distant to lure His Satanic Majesty from the body.

If the Chinese soldiers fight the same as they dress we would not be afraid to face the whole crowd. Their idea of fighting is to make a noise to frighten the enemy, and if that does not do they wave their shirts which they always wear outside their trousers. Over here they lock a man up for wearing his shirt that way.

Cheaper to Eat Out Than at Your Home

Special Dinner at The Alexandra Nightly Is Making a Tremendous Hit

Invite your wife, or if single, take your best girl, to a restaurant. It is cheaper than dining at home. A married couple kept a budget of household costs, including meals, and were amazed at the end of the month to discover that their Sunday dinner cost $3.40, without any special frills. This fact was further emphasized when the second month revealed the same cost. It was then they decided to dine at the East Avenue Coffee Shop each Sunday noon, where a special dinner is served at $1.25. News of this special feast spread, with result that the diningroom was comfortably crowded each and every Sunday.

Observing the popularity of this special dinner, the management decided to serve the same delicious meal nightly in its other restaurant, The Alexandra, corner of East avenue and Alexander street. The hours of service are 5 to 8. Not only do couples find this evening dinner economical and very palatable, but Bachelor Girls and Bachelors find it a pleasure and a profit to dine there regularly.

The Alexandra management also makes a specialty of bridge luncheons and special menus for parties.

Another Marion Talley singing marvel is promised, this time from Georgia. Anna Goodman, sixteen, was praised by Mme. Schumann-Heink as possessing a God-given voice. "Help your mother, have faith in God, and do not fall in love, and your future as a singer is assured" commented Mme. Schumann-Heink.

A "skunk pie" is the latest production of the culinary art.

The ignorance of some persons is amazing. A farmer from Livingston county visited Police Headquarters to get a closeup view of a night club, he having heard of gay Night Clubs. The only night club he had ever heard described was the heavy night stick carried by The Finest.

"What is the best treatment for a boil?" asks a reader. See the boiler-maker.

YOUNG AT 93

Among the Civil War veterans at the flag ceremonies in Eastman theater on Washington's Birthday was Captain Philo F. Talcott, who will be 93 years of age on April 23. Captain Talcott is father of Mrs. Edmund Lyon of East avenue. War is not always what General Sherman called it, according to Captain Talcott, and it has its comedy as well as tragedy. For instance, Captain Talcott told of how Abe Lincoln, then President, cracked jokes with the soldiers at Fredericksburg. One time Captain Talcott, driving a mule, called it a name, and President Lincoln humorously remarked that such language sounded as if it emanated from an Episcopalian. The President guessed wrong; Captain Talcott was a Methodist. There was sufficient reason to swear those days. "I feel healthy and hearty," Captain Talcott recently said, "and feel younger than my age."

Captain Arthur G. Barry of the Lyell avenue police station proved that he was a clever go-getter as well as copper by signing many new members for the Auto Club.

Wives who Summertime away from home were given a thrill in the movie picture entitled Summer Bachelors, which purported to portray just what the gay stay-at-home husband does. If women think mice will not play when the cat is away, their faith is to be adored. Of course, all men are not alike, and Summer Bachelors is only a picture anyhow.
