WILLIAMS CLASS

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH
SUNDAY SCHOOL

---

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

1900.

OUR FIRST TEACHER,
ELLA B. WILLIAMS.

DIED APRIL 5, 1884.

“WILLIAMS CLASS.”

The Class was organized on the first Sunday in January, 1882, the members being selected from the Infant Department of the School, and was known as Class No. 26. Miss Ella B. Williams was its faithful and devoted teacher until her death, April 5, 1884.

The following were the original members of the Class :

EDITH COLLYER,
LOUISE N. ROBINSON,
FLORA ROBINSON,
CARRIE SQUIER,
LILLARENE HOPKINS,
MARY JUDSON,
ROSA TISHLING,
MARGARET C. BROWN,
FLORENCE STILWELL,
ANNA JONES,
MAY SEELEY.

Mrs. Samuel W. Duncan's Class, upon her removal from the City, united with the Class on December 22, 1888.

The Class has been known in different years on the Sunday School Rolls respectively as "Class 26," "Class 20" and "Class 47." In 1899, the Class was designated by its members as the "Williams Class."

The following is the Class Roll :

BY THE WAYSIDE.

---

“Get thy spindle and thy distaff ready and God will send thee flax.”

“It is good to be in God's field and work whatever the seeming results for a time may be.”

“Seek your life's nourishment in your life's work.”—P. Brooks.

“Only eyes prepared by faith, see heavenly visions.”

“Do we appreciate the fact that Christ has left us a share of His work to do?”

“The house of God is the likeliest place to find a true child of God.”

“Work is worship, if done in obedience to and in dependence of God.”

“The Christian ignorant of the Bible is always in danger.”

“The very sense of culture is obligation.”

“It is for us to sow the seed ; it is for God to gather the fruit : if not to-day, it will be to-morrow ; if not by us, it will be by others.”

“One’s true wealth is the good he does in this world, when one has come to seek the honor that comes from God only, he will take the withholding of the honor that comes from men very quietly.”—Geo. MacDonald.

“Sometimes the buried giant, conscience, stirs under the mountain and shakes all the villages and vineyards which we have planted on its sides.”—P. Brooks.

“Not to the preaching of angels, but to the testimony of men has God committed the winning of this world to Christ.”

“Who knows what mighty servant of God may be called unto the Lord’s work by your testimony.”

“It is the lives, like the stars, which simply pour down on us the calm light of their bright and faithful being, up to which we look and out of which we gather the deepest calm and courage.”—P. Brooks.

“Make a rule and pray God to help you to keep it, never if possible to lie down at night without being able to say ‘I have made one human being, at least, a little wiser, a little happier or a little better this day ;’ you will find it easier than you think and pleasanter.”
—Canon Kingsley.

"The secret of happiness is and always must be, not something apart from the soul, but something within it."

"A loving apostle is a living epistle."

"God with us here, means that we shall be with Him there."

"The love of Christ radiates rather than absorbs."

"What we desire, we ask, what we ask, we aim at, and what we aim at, we shall attain. No one ever yet asked to be, as the days pass by, more and more noble and sweet and pure and heavenly minded, without his petition being granted."

"He who lives expecting to die, may die expecting to live."

"Petulance prolongs the pain that patience relieves."

"A helping hand is the longest rope in the world, and will reach the bottom of wells so deep that nothing else can touch them."

"Like a man sick of a palsy, the redeemed must show their cure by their walk."

"If the Lord does not change the place for the better, He will make us the better in the place."—C. H. Spurgeon.

“Live the Christian life on principle, relying not on your changing feelings, but on the promises of a faithful God.”

“Fraternize more—patronize less.”

“God never lays a commandment on any soul which He does not aid that soul in performing for him.”

“There are no trifles in Christian living ; the greatest harvests spring from the smallest seeds.”—F. B. Meyer.
